

SELF-REPLICATING COMMUNION

1. As self-replicating particles replicate themselves ...and also replicate particles that replicate the original particle [1B], you replicate yourself through offspring which replicate you ...and you also replicate yourself through eternal selves and past lives which replicate you today! ...yes, that's what we said, ...you replicate eternal selves [Book 3] and past lives [Book 34] which replicate you today!

2. Actually, you and your body "began" as a pool of random self-replicating particles and happenings ...which exists for you even today as a source! ...but now you also have desires and mindful self-replicating actions in communion [Book 7] to augment and expand that source.

3. At every moment, you are simultaneously creating or replicating your past and your future! ...or maybe you can understand this if we declare that you are not only creating your future today with every belief, thought, attitude, emotion, word, and deed ...but from that future ...you are creating your self and life today! ...you are a time traveler! ...and this all occurs as visions [Book 30] of occurrences within occasions of noncetime [Book 38].

4. Is it possible for you to carry an image of your future self with you at all times? ...this is not an image of who you want to become, it is an image of who you already are today that you are replicating yourself to be! ...in other words, this is an image of who you are in the future that is replicating you today!

5. My eldest son as a teenager is a perfect image of a picture of my father (his direct grandfather) taken during WWI at about the same age, ...and, in fact, since my father died many years ago and because my son, as a very young child, dreamed of being killed in the same way my father was murdered, which he could not know, this provided a great deal of evidence that my son is my father! ...which means I replicated and gave birth to my son who replicated and gave birth to me!

6. Isn't it probable that I as my father "created" this event to clearly and fully illustrate self-replicating? ...and isn't it just as probable that similar "strange" events in your life and dreams [Book 29] picturing and illustrating similar ordinary matters and happenings in your body and life are "real" ...not strange nonsensical occurrences?

7. Though you don't seem to realize it, you are both created and limited or unrestricted by your past and future ...and you create the past and future that creates you!

8. Certainly you can understand that you as an eternalbeing are both the past and future of yourself today! ...it is now vital for you to realize that you today are both the past and future of your eternalbeing today! ...and all of this is clearly illustrated in my life, just as in my dreams, as occasions or events and visions because this is impossible to language and difficult to describe ...yet easy to visualize and illustrate!

9. Strange as it may seem, you chose to be alive in this area of the universe in order to be seen ...to shine as brightly as the stars (IB38) and be recognized and affirmed by sight, yet now you are concealing yourself again! ...why do you suppose that is?

10. You could have been seen as darkmatter ...and as you see clearly in your dreams ...but you wanted to shine as brightly as the stars ...and be seen and affirmed! ...so you were formed in life in an environment of light! ...have you changed your mind already?

11. What extraordinary awarenesses and realizations ...and exciting adventures are you forsaking by not paying close attention to the images and illustrations in your self and life today, and in your dreams, by closing your eyes and mind ...or by concealing these happenings under a covering of unseen matters? ...or by distorting them to unknowing through language?

12. Have you ever considered that, like the illustration of my father and son, without the proper use of language~not languaging~as a clear description of your dream and life images, you will not understand those visions? ...obviously, you need a suitable advantageous communion of visions and language by clearing away all obscuring and distorting matters!

13. In becoming aware of and realizing your eternalself, it is important that you do not consider yourself-today and yourself-eternal as separate beings, conditions, activities, or powers ...but as separate beings·conditions·activities·powers communioneing as one! ...but this is not a oneness!

14. You ...from you "position" as a personalbeing create and function yourself as a personal-eternalbeing! ...and you ...from your "position" as an eternalbeing create and function yourself as an eternal-personalbeing! ...and if you have an image or vision of this, then obviously you realize there is a third you existing and functioning as the communion of a personaleternalbeing·eternalpersonalbeing!

15. The third entity that is you is an illuminatedbeing called resplendent! [Book 8] ...actually, if you really, really, really understood this, then you realize that you today and you eternally are merely vital-perspectives and "ways" of appearing and functioning as an illuminatedbeing!

16. Certainly, you realize that as a chain is determined, controlled, and limited by its weakest link, you as an illuminatedbeing are governed by the weakest link of you as a mortalself or you as an eternalself! ...as a personalbeing or privilegedbeing! ...as yourself today or yourself past or future, ...and if you understand this, then surely you can see the devastation you do to yourself in limiting yourself to learning, growing, developing, and becoming, ...and by limiting yourself to a past you cannot change ...and a future that has not yet arrived! ...for in this, you are the weakest link!

17. Awareful communion with your eternalself does not usually come in a single event or occasion! ...it is more likely to follow after a great deal of trying and testing ...and realizing there is indeed an eternalself that is you! ...which offers an unshakable awareness and realization that this communion is real! ...in fact, your eternalbeing shows up regularly in your dreams [Book 29].

18. The communion of personalbeing-privilegedbeing, ...of mortal-eternal awareness and realization, and of human-divine minding is of vital importance, ...but of even "greater" importance is the vivifying communion of awakened visions and sturdiness ...and "divine" conditions that flow from that communion! ...even as that flow is now in one direction, from personalbeing to privilegedbeing, ...the moment will come when that is repaid! ...be assured of that!

Are you limiting and imposing on your eternal privilegedbeing and illuminatedbeing?
