

PRESENCE

1. It is sad that others are not actively aware of their eternalself and life, but sadder still is the fact that we add to their loss by not recognizing and acknowledging their true nature! ...are you willing to free everyone to the eternalbeing they are?

2. Beside you is a presence! ...do you feel it? It may at times seem vague ...and lose definition and description, yet it is always with you ...seeking your acknowledgment and support! Presence is not there to teach and guide you, ...it is to be prepared by you, which will in turn fully acknowledge and affirm you! ...support you! ...and guide you!

3. When the touch of this presence is lost or forsaken, a conscious stillness in the midst of your busy activities can return the assurance and comfort of that touch to you!

4. Presence does not work through you, you work through this affirming presence at all times! ...for you are the mind and hands of presence! ...and everything you do, you do for presence ...and from presence. What are you offering? What are you teaching and revealing ...and sharing? What are you saying and doing?

5. Presence abides with you constantly as an intimate companion, such that when you speak, you speak in communion! ...and when you act, you act in communion!

6. Your talent, ability, and privilege is to live and life this presence that lives with you! ...and draws greatness from you! ...so you can bring that fineness to everyone you meet. Presence that abides with you provides an expansive awareness and realization of yourself and the life you are preparing and living for yourself ...and for others.

7. This presence is much more than "God is watching you!" ...for you are teaching and offering this presence! ...therefore, in speaking of yourself alone ...you deny the life and presence of yourself!

8. Are you willing to live within this presence without fear or doubt? ...to be touched and affirmed by this presence? ...to be drawn out of yourself by this presence? Everything you do ...you do in this presence!

9. It is time to come face-to-face with your other expansive selfhood ...the companionness that surrounds you that is you ...beyond the self you are familiar with! ...the forsaken part of yourself that is lost to unawareness.

10. Those who taught you to "look within" did you a disservice! ...for you are far-more-expansive outside of yourself than you ever realized! ...or can ever be within yourself! ...do not continue limiting and confining yourself so!

11. Your eternalself abides in presence all around you ...not within you! ...and you and your companion in communion is your true being and self!

12. Many times in many situations you have probably felt limited or inadequate! ...now, the more you become aware of the presence all around you, the more you will draw yourself into that ...and realize the expansiveness of yourself!

13. Though you don't seem to realize it, you are at the very center of your being! ...unaware that the presence and companion you are seeking is all around you! ...do not go within ...expand without!

14. Come to the active awareness of what is all around you! ...you may be surprised to discover that the clatter and confusion of life is not close at hand ...it is outside of the presence around you, ...are you now willing to come out of your shell and sense the presence near at hand? ...and live awarefully in that presence at all times?

15. It is your choice to come out into communion with the presence around you ...or continue searching and hiding within! ...which will you choose?

16. Begin by acknowledging there is a companion around you ...for you to guide and assist! ...for you to see and speak for! ...and for you to act on behalf of!

17. Hopefully, the day will come when you will knowingly live and life ...and function outside of yourself in the presence again ...awarefully communioned with your eternalself! ...then, in the few times you lose or forsake that presence, you can quickly return your self and eternal companion to communion in that presence.

18. Einstein declared that everything is relative ...and that is true! ...but everything exists within its own presence ...and that is vital!

19. Acknowledge the presence and companion around you ...and do all things in every circumstance of life in this eternal presence! ...offer yourself from your eternal presence! ...relieve yourself and others of the pains, problems, and illnesses resulting from loss of awareness of presence! ...do everything in the presence and promise of presence! ...understand and apply yourself in presence! ...never forsake eternal presence! ...experience and understand all things in eternal presence! ...expand your awarenesses and realizations in presence! ...relax and comfort yourself in presence!

20. Whatever you do, do not hold yourself within! ...for your true being and presence that surrounds you is finer and more expansive than any condition or circumstance in your body and life ...or in the world around you!

21. In the beginning was the eternal presence! ...today, you are a coalescence of that presence within that presence!

22. You are eternal in presence! ...yet, even that is not you! ...however, the day will come when this presence will be so real with you ...and a part of you that most of the time you will be unaware of its presence! ...yet, it will still be with you ...for you to realize! ...and to know that with every belief, thought, attitude, emotion, word, and action you are guiding and teaching and supporting that presence! ...and being directed, enhanced, and supported in return! ...this is the promise and revelation of life lived in the eternal way! (Book 31)

23. Acknowledge the presence of your eternal nature ...and the communion presence within every belief, thought, attitude, emotion, word, and action ...and in every experience, ...and show others to the presence of themselves!

24. The realization of eternal presence can be lived and applied in every situation and circumstance! ...are you willing to protect and direct your presence? ...and that of others? ...to offer wisdom and guidance? ...to care for and protect the health of presence, and provide strength and understanding with every belief and action ...and receive the same in every event and experience?

25. Though you don't realize it yet, presence offers you knowledge of and protection from unsuitable desires and ambitions, from harmful activities and false pleasures, from lack of eternal awarenesses and realizations, and from the normal discords of life!

26. Presence is not a power or force that will do for you what you are unwilling to do for yourself! ...presence opens your eyes and mind beyond the moment so you can make wise eternal decisions for your self and life.

27. Presence is a quality of poise and effectiveness ...and ease of performance ...resulting from the communion of temporal-eternal that enables you to achieve a close, sympathetic, and awareful relationship with all individuals and matters in your life!

28. Presence is your ancient life that still continues! ...and has existence and influence in the present! ...and which is within sight, at hand, on call! Presence expands and extends your area of influence ...and the effectiveness of that influence!

29. Overcoming your problems and struggles ...and lifeing your dreams is not in "being present", it is in living your eternal presence! ...which is the awareful communion of your self and life today with your on-going ancient self and life, ...actually, your personal Garden of Eden is the presence all around you, ...have you forgotten that? ...or abandoned it? Your body and life can be a shambles of pain, doubt, and unawareness when you live without your eternal presence clearly realized as a guide to understanding, ...therefore, it is vital that you and healers realize that the secret of all "healing and wellbeing" is understanding the life and true desires of patients ...and acting upon their eternal presence and eternal nature ...otherwise, all treatments will be temporary at best ...and mostly ineffective! ...though, such treatments can certainly relieve the body of pain and illness ...they do little or nothing for the self occupying that body!

30. To all healers! ...the kingdom of eternal is the presence all around you ...and around your patients, ...therefore, all "healing" other than "symptom relief" requires the acknowledgment and affirmation [Book 24] of a patient's eternal presence ...and communion with and within that eternal presence! Once one's eternal presence is perceived, you will have the necessary awareness and realization to effectuate a lasting result ...regardless of the nature of the affliction presented! ...or at least you will be able to deal with your patient's eternal problem or difficulty! In this, you are not seeing two different sides or aspects of your patient, you are seeing the same individual ...of separate beings in two different situations ...temporal and eternal. In most patients, you will see these beings and situations in conflict ...not in communion!

31. Of course, seeing and effectuating a person's presence in communion does not mean you will heal or enliven every patient and relieve every hurt or illness, for many individuals will not awaken themselves to their communion and eternal presence in their life ...or will not do so for very long before returning to "self and life as usual" ...and to old matters and activities without eternal awareness and realization, ...can you perceive how eternal awareness and presence overshadows all temporary conditions and situations ...and offers wellbeing?

32. So it is ...that while many people "seek a healing" ...they actually only want relief from the pain and symptoms of the self and life they are creating and struggling to endure! ...and many healers who declare they "want to heal", actually, only want relief from the pain and symptoms of their self and life as well.

33. No person, thing, condition, or happening is the source of your pain and afflictions, ...your loss of eternal awareness and realization creates discord about what you are doing and lifeing and living at the moment ...and that disturbs and afflicts you!

34. In your body and life today, you create and react to your own creations without an eternal presence to offer you an expanded view of yourself and your creations! ...unfortunately, you react without awareness ...and judge without realization! ...do you believe it is wise to continue in these ways?

Presence expands you and your life, ...it is not a refuge from life!
